

In Science, we will be learning about different types of rocks and fossils. We will also be exploring “plants” and the life cycle of flowering plants. About the different parts and functions of plants and the role they play.

In maths, we will be learning about multiplication and division, length, perimeter and fractions.

In computing, we will be continuing to learn how to use scratch. We will also be learning about networks.

In History, we will be learning about the Stone Age and how different life was back then. We will be exploring hunter-gatherers and how people in the Stone Age used to live.

Stone Age Badger Class Spring Term

In PE, we will be participating in hockey as our outdoor PE. We will also be learning yoga as part of our indoor PE.

In Geography, we will continue to learn about our world and its human and physical features linked to the Stone Age. We will be finding out about Stone Henge and Skara Brae.

In French, will be learning activities that we are able or not able to do.

In DT, we will be creating “Stone Age buggies” We will be using a variety of different materials to make them all unique.

In Music, we will be learning a song and learning to play some instruments.

In PHSE, we will be learning about “Dreams and Goals” and “Being Healthy”.

In RE, we will be learning about Sikhism and the different aspects of this religion.

We will also be learning about “Why Christians call the day Jesus died Good Friday?”